

A Direct Personal Appeal from

The Charities of John Green & Others

I was both humbled and delighted with the response to my appeal for donations from the good people of Navestock who can afford it, for the benefit of those in Navestock who cannot.

Could I remind you, and appeal to you again if you have not done so, to make a small contribution this local charity.

As the ad says "every little bit helps".

The Greens Charity was formed in 1625 by John Green, a grocer, who was born in Navestock and made good in London.

He left his money to help the Parishioners of Navestock and this work continues to this day.

100% of the donations goes to the benefit of the people of Navestock, as the Trustees do their job for free, so you can be assured that a donation you make will be used for your communities welfare.

Please, if you have not done so and can afford a little please make a donation, as the longer this virus goes on the worse it will get for those in difficulty.
